
Dual Back Pressure Valve

The Dual Back Pressure Valve is designed to provide a means of shutting off the coiled tubing from within the well. This tool can be used to simply prevent flow up from the bottom hole assembly.

Features, Advantages and Benefits

- Maintains Well Control
- Large I.D. for Ball Passage
- Dual for Back-Up
- Multiple sizes available

