
Hydraulic Disconnect

The Hydraulic Disconnect is an essential piece of equipment used for releasing the coiled tubing from the bottom hole assembly if it has become stuck while in the wellbore.

Features, Advantages and Benefits

- Hidden internal shear screws
- Internal splines for torque displacement
- Standard GH.S. Type internal fishing profile
- Impact resistant to jarring

