

Straddle Tool

The Pro Tool Straddle Tool is a 2 piece tool that is used for testing casing to locate areas that will not hold pressure. The Straddle Tool can be spaced with joints of tubing allowing for easy and quick use for testing the casing as well as using the tool for long spacing wash tool for acidizing. The tool has a built in bypass allowing for easy well control when running and using the tool. This tool can easily be used to pin-point areas that will not test.

Features, Advantages and Benefits

- Cost effective
- Rig friendly
- Tool can be ran with multiple joints allowing for easy use at rig location
- Available in variety of sizes
- Able to run variety of fluids with tool, i.e. water, acid, chemicals

